Paul Malloy, conductor of "It's the Molloy" column, Chicago Sun-Times, Feb. 8

Darned if I don't have myself a heady candidate for 1964's Town-of-the-Year Award. This time it's Hope, Ark., which has a population of 8,399. It's chief claim to fame has been that it raises quite possibly the biggest watermelons on the continent (the record was set in 1939 (Ed Note: 1935)) with a 195-pound whopper).

Washington, which is rapidly developing a strange attachment for new post offices, wants to build one in Hope to replace the present 52-year-old structure. It would cost $500,000, but Hope's populace wants none of it. The townspeople are currently signing a petition against it, launched by Alex. Washburn, publisher of the Hope Star.

The petition's chances are excellent, for Hopefuls recently rejected funds for street construction in their town. Says Washburn:

"The government has an obligation much greater than the . . . rule of bureaucrats — the obligation to keep itself solvent so our country can defend itself in time of war and honor its social security pledges in time of peace. There are thousands of towns like us throughout America, prosperous enough, but without material change. To replace all their post offices simply because some non-elective official invokes a . . . rule is to ask for this very attack I am making."

Hail to thee, Hope, Ark., gem of the mid-South and likely winner of the next Town-of-the-Year award. Perhaps some day some Harvard-bred spender in Washington will listen.

Hits Bus Rather Than Embankment

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—A Wheeling school bus driver says he intentionally swerved his loaded vehicle into another bus Monday to avoid plunging over a steep embankment.

The 65 children in Charles Bebout's bus and 45 children in the other escaped injury but both buses were badly damaged. Bebout said his bus lost its brakes as he was coming down a hill. He said the other bus at the bottom of the hill was blocking most of the road.

Admits He Knew Sinatra to Be Kidnaped

By GENE HANDSAKER

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A rock'n' roll singer has electrified a federal courtroom by testifying he knew about the Frank Sinatra Jr. kidnap scheme about two months before it was carried out.

Earlier Monday Dean Torrence, 23, denied advance knowledge of the plot — and thereby, the judge said, committed perjury.

In his later version Torrence said defendant Barry Keenan told him of the plan in October and, three days after the alleged abduction, gave him about $25,000. But, he said, he gave it back.

In his first appearance Torrence, known for his hit record "Surf City," said he had considered Keenan his best friend for six years.

He said he had lent him money "so he could eat," adding that Keenan owed him $1,200. He denied the money was to finance a kidnaping and that he knew of any such plan. He was excused as a witness.

In the afternoon Asst. U.S. Atty. Thomas R. Sheridan recalled him and Torrence said: "I admit I made up some stories. I did know about the so-called kidnaping and I did get some money and I gave it back."

U.S. Dist. Judge William G. East said Torrence had committed perjury and that "the matter, of course, will have to be dealt with."

Keenan, 23; Joseph Clyde Amsler, 23; and John Irwin, 42, are charged with kidnaping Sinatra Jr. Dec. 8 from Lake Tahoe and releasing the 20-year-old singer here three days later after receiving $240,000 ransom from the elder Sinatra. The defense has claimed it was a publicity hoax.

Two Linemen Pick Porkers

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Two top class AA linemen have announced they will attend the University of Arkansas on football scholarships.

They are linebacker Mike Law of Smackover and tackle Buddy Northern of Benton. Law was all-state in football and basketball. Northern was one of Arkansas schoolboy football's biggest linemen last year at 217 pounds. He also was all-state.

Will Find Cause of Smoking

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — West Virginia's official joint committee on smoking education says it will seek a federal grant to pay for its own private study of what causes people to start smoking.

State Health Director N. H. Dyer, co-chairman of the committee, said anti-smoking campaigns need additional basic information if they are to bring results.

"You can't treat a patient without a good diagnosis," he said.

Buddhist Priest Badly Burned

HONOLULU (AP) — A 78-year-old Buddhist priest was burned severely on the lawn of the Koboji Shingo Mission Sunday.

The Rev. Kakuo Okimura, was in critical condition today with severe burns over 40 per cent of his body, from the waist down.

The priest told a church member that he was burned more than six hours before he was found on the lawn.

This was the only information police were able to obtain.

Junior Play to Be Staged on March 6

"Knock, Knock!" Who's there? None other than the spooky ghost of the Junior play.

You won't miss him if you come to the Hope High auditorium March 6 to see the first production of "Knock Knock!" under the direction of Mrs. B. B. McPherson.

The play is a comedy in three acts about a new family which moved into a haunted house, where pictures fall and pans fly through the air. To the teenagers of the family it is a joke, but mom and dad don't agree. The play turns out to be a barrel of laughs and fun before the mystery is solved.

The cast, announced February 10, includes the following juniors: Val, Margie Herndon; Dulcie, Vicki Connell; Tommy, Lance Jones; Mrs. Cosgrove, Cissie Ellis; Mr. Cosgrove, Carter Hardage; Hank Harrell, John Scott Andrews; Mrs. Loden, Poleda Glanton; Betty Ann, Mary Ann Bader; Mr. Harkness, David Grimmer; Miss Bidwell, Myrie Cox; Mrs. Grigs, Gayle Medders; Dr. Foley, Tommy Bright; Quigley, Harry Ray McMahen; Lucas, Dick Willis; Fernanda, Gloria Martin; Sergeant Austin, Jimmy O'Neal; Jane Langford, Jan Gaines; Joe Lambert, Byron Cunningham; Mrs. Simmons and four children, Sharon Frith, Brenda Rateliff, Lynda O'Steen, Janice Harper, and Betty Schenck; Sheila and Pat, Virginia Edwards and Betty Monroe; Stan, Ronnie Phillips.

He is Douglas J. Sowell, 33, a jet airplane mechanic. The pace of choosing jurors stepped up markedly with Sowell's selection. For the first time, two jurors have been found on the same day.

Luther E. Dickerson, who preceded Sowell in court, also was accepted.

Hawthorne Announces for Treasurer

The Hope Star has been authorized to announce the candidacy of Harry Hawthorne for re-election to the office of County Treasurer. In making his announcement Mr. Hawthorne issued the following statement:

"To the citizens of Hempstead County:

I take this means of announcing my candidacy for re-election as Treasurer of Hempstead County.

It has been a privilege and a pleasure to have served you in this capacity, and I assure each of you that if I am re-elected to the Treasurer's office, I will continue to devote my time and efforts in fulfilling the duties of this office in a proper and efficient manner.

I am deeply grateful to the citizens of Hempstead County for the splendid support you have given me in the past, and I will appreciate your vote and support in the coming Democratic Primary Election."

Baker Refuses to Talk About His Activities

WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite a blunt warning that he was risking prison, Robert G. Baker refused to testify today on his duties as secretary that enriched him while he held the post.

One of the questions—to all of which Baker pleaded his constitutional right to avoid self-incrimination—was whether he ever had sought to obtain gambling concessions in the Dominican Republic.

Others dealt with a Washington insurance man's gift of a hi-fi set to Lyndon B. Johnson before Johnson became president, and purchase of $1,200 worth of television advertising time on an Austin, Tex., station controlled by the Johnson family.

Don Reynolds, the insurance man, testified earlier in the Senate Rules Committee's investigation of Baker that Baker aided him in selling $200,000 of insurance on Johnson's life, suggested the hi-fi gift and gave him to understand the purchase of the advertising time was expected.

5th Juror Selected in Ruby Case

By RELMAN MORIN

DALLAS (AP)—Another juror, the fifth, was sworn in today for Jack Ruby's murder trial.

He is Douglas J. Sowell, 33, a jet airplane mechanic. The pace of choosing jurors stepped up markedly with Sowell's selection. For the first time, two jurors have been found on the same day.

Luther E. Dickerson, who preceded Sowell in court, also was accepted.

Sowell was asked whether he believed that Ruby shot Lee Harvey Oswald as part of a conspiracy.

"I had doubts of that all the way," Sowell said.

He said he had seen a rerun of the scene on television when Ruby shot Oswald. He was vague as to the details, however.

Dickerson, 27, is vice president of a chemical firm. He testified that he did not see either the original or any reruns of the televised scene in which Ruby shot Lee Harvey Oswald.

Another unique qualification, from the defense point of view, was the fact that he was familiar with the polygraph (lie detector).

During Dickerson's questioning by chief defense counsel Melvin Belli it was pointed out to him that a newspaper account today reported that a Dallas firm uses the polygraph sometimes in hiring new employees. Belli asked if that was Dickerson's firm. "It could be," Dickerson replied.

Belli attempted to ask him whether he personally had any part in conducting polygraph tests. A storm of objections came from the prosecution and Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown sustained them.

Ruby's defense is based on temporary insanity.

Dickerson is married and has two sons. He is a Baptist. He said he was out of town when Oswald was killed and that he had not discussed the shooting with anyone.

Before accepting him, Belli, assistant defense counsel Joe Tonahill and Ruby huddled in a brief whispered conference. Belli then said, "Mrs. Dickerson, we are going to take you out of circulation for a while."

Addressing the judge, Belli said, "We like this juror." Dist. Atty. Henry Wade promptly accepted.

Dickerson was the 67th hperson called.

Defense attorneys said today that, pending new legal maneuvers on disputed questions, they intend to continue with the hearings in Dallas.

"We're going to stay here for a while and see what happens," Belli said.

He said Monday he might go to the U.S. Supreme Court for a ruling on the question of eligibility as jurors of the host of people in Dallas County who saw Ruby shoot Oswald on television last Nov. 24.

Found After 36 Hours on Mountain

PRESCOTT, Ariz. (AP) — Dennis Hargus, 9, went to an Indian guide winter pow-wow and passed a test that would have been tough on guides of old.

Dennis was found Monday after spending 36 hours lost in mountain country where the temperatures dipped to 12 degrees.

The third grader from Mesa, Ariz., was at YMCA camp 13 miles south of Prescott on a father-son outing Sunday when he decided "to find some deep snow."

He left camp at 9:30 a.m. and at nightfall still had not returned. Some 300 persons set out to find him.

Late Sunday afternoon Dennis built a shelter of logs and brush and "went to bed early." He was dressed in a sweatshirt, trousers and low-cut shoes and carried no food.

Two men on horseback found him Monday afternoon. Apparently suffering only from a few scrapes and bruises, "I sure am tired," was Dennis' only reaction.

But his father was more emphatic about the incident. "It was a miracle," said William Hargus.

Falls 1000 Feet, Lives to Tell

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Lt. Edward A. Dickson is worried. "While I'm waiting this out, I may have to do a bit of driving. You know, I really dread driving a car. It's damn dangerous."

Dickson, a Navy pilot from Wyoming, Pa., is in Oak Knoll Naval Hospital in Oakland recuperating from a broken injury leg—the only major injury he suffered after falling 1,000 feet from his disabled A4 Skyhawk jet with a parachute that wouldn't open.

The plunge last Thursday, at an estimated 120 miles per hour, ended in a deep snow-drift. Only when the 26-year-old flier bounced 50 feet in the air, skidded along the snow and slammed into a pine tree did he realize something had gone wrong.

"As I turned," he said, "I noticed the parachute was still strapped to my back, still in its pack."

"Who knows what a 'chute is supposed to feel like? To me, this was the normal reaction. I'd never bailed out before."

Rescuers found him wrapped in the recalcitrant parachute for warmth.

Has he had enough of flying?

Author of Peyton Place Dies at 38

BOSTON (AP)—Grace Metalious, author of the controversial novel, "Peyton Place," died today at Boston's Beth Israel Hospital. She was 38 years old.

A spokesman for the hospital said death was caused by a chronic liver disease.

The then-unknown wife of a Gilmanston, N.H., school teacher leaped into national prominence overnight by her frank portrayal of intimate details of village life in a New England community.

Mrs. Metalious was twice married to her school teacher husband, George, and twice divorced, and was the mother of three children. Between her first and second marriage to George Metalious, she was married for a time to T.J. (Jack) Martin, a Laconia, N.H., disc jockey.

No Sign of Survivors Reported

By ROBERT ROWAND

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — An Eastern Air Lines four-engine jetliner carrying 56 persons on a flight from Mexico City to New York disappeared minutes after takeoff from a New Orleans stop today and crashed in Lake Pontchartrain. There were no signs of survivors.

The Coast Guard said it recovered parts of a large aircraft, including seats, communication equipment and sound-proofing.

Also recovered were clothing, luggage and what was described as parts of bodies.

The Coast Guard said one of its helicopter pilots over the wreckage area reported there were indications that the plane either exploded in the air or on impact. The debris was scattered over a wide area.

The spokesman said the site is about six miles south of the north shore of the lake, or some 20 miles north of New Orleans. It was about four miles east of the 27-mile long Lake Pontchartrain causeway connecting the north and south shores.

Eastern said there were 49 passengers aboard, including 32 who were making the through trip and 17 who boarded in New Orleans. "Fourteen of the passengers were pass-riding Eastern employees."

Eastern said the DC8, Flight 304, left New Orleans International Airport for Atlanta at 2:01 a.m. (CST) and disappeared from air traffic control Continued on Page Three

Country Music Fans Have Chance

KXAR is seeking to determine if there are some real Country Music fans in this area who would like to hear an hour of Grand Ole Opry music every day.

On Wednesday, February 26 KXAR will place a ballot in the Hope Star asking country music fans to fill it in and return it to the station. You will be asked whether or not you want Country Music and what hour of the day. You are asked to vote on 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. — 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. — or 6:00 to 7:00 p.m.

The series will run from April 1st thru September and KXAR, with its increased power of 1000 watts will be able to reach many listeners later in the day since they can maintain the 1000 watts power until 7:00 p.m. through most of that Spring and Summer period.

These taped shows will feature Roy Acuff, Marty Robbins, Flatt & Scruggs, Ferlin Husky, Faron Young, Hank Snow and a host of other Grand Ole Opry Stars.

If 1000 country music fans respond to this ballot then we will have the Grand Ole Opry on KXAR. Either mail it to the station or take it to Baker's Easy Pay Store, Haynes Bros., West's or the United Dollars Store. If you miss the ballot in the paper then send a postcard.

Phone calls will not be accepted — it must be in writing with your name signed to it. Here is a chance for Country Music fans to make their voices heard. Can we get 1000 ballots returned by March 7? If so, the series will start about April 6th.

CHAPTER XXXII

By the time Turner got back on deck Jorge had the small boat in the water. I heard them start the outboard motor.

With no sister to show, Jorge would have little time to spare. As soon as I heard the outboard move away I used my good hand and arm to pull on the line and belled over the gunwale into the motor sailer. As Jorge had said, there was a broad drawer under the bunk on the portside. The arsenal in it was quite impressive. I didn't fool with the fancy. There was a .38 with a barrel long enough to make me think I could hit something with it. There was also a submachine gun, with a fine, long clip tucked into its midriff. I took it for good measure and then I pulled out the drawer on the starboard side of the cabin.

It was filled with the kind of stereophonic equipment that would make an addict sound like his own tweeter, and it was all hooked up to play as you go. Besides the turntable and all the acoustical devices, there was a tape recorder, yards of tape on the oversized spindle. I turned the thing on, and beat it with my guns. Forward of the cockpit I dropped down the ladder until only my head and shoulders were above deck and my nose even with the gunwale.

I saw them beach the boat and Turner start plodding through the sand toward the truck. Then I saw Jorge begin to run. He was 60 yards down the beach and heading inland before Turner realized that the boy was running from him.

He had his gun up and aiming when two sleek cars came over the hill and roared down the road. The Jaguar was first and I could see Gail's shoulder-length blonde hair blowing, a fine wig to stick to the doll so well.

Turner let Jorge go and moved toward the cars. Gail slipped from the long roadster alone. Briant and Herbert got out of the other car together. Turner pointed in the direction in which Jorge had disappeared, and then they all walked over to the truck.

Even from my distance, it was obvious they were nervous. It was also obvious when they decided on the boat.

I scuttled down for a look around the second cabin. A cockroach would have been hard put to hide there. So I took the bunk portside behind the aqua curtains, set the Tommy gun on ready, and settled down to wait.

After a small eternity, while the sound of the outboard grew louder and louder, I heard a thump and then their voices. They came aboard aft so I settled down.

If it hadn't been for Gail and Herbert, I might have waited, let them find me, started the fight with surprise on my side.

But take a look at it and let me milk my tears. On the new side of life, in those brief few days and hours since I had started on my way to being a new man, I had met a woman, a woman, as I have said, who would have wooed Jason from the Argo and Christian from the Bounty. In the same short span of time I had met a man, a pip-squeak with a million dollars, who had talked of my father and who had made it possible for me to awaken with a nightingale singing. All this and heaven, too, as they say, had been the excellent part of a messy handful of days.

I went around the cockpit on the starboard side. I hung over the Gulf with the submachine gun tucked under my bad arm. Because there is no way to secure a weapon in the top of a pair of snap-button shorts, I had to leave the revolver behind.

I crept up on top of their cabin and wondered why they didn't hear my heartbeat and my knees knocking together.

"... with our passports in order..." That was Gail.

Turner had had combat training somewhere along the line—professional.

"Not me, you don't." The redhead, my alter ego, I had done his time.

"But, of course," Herbert said. "You're not thinking it out, Dave. There are activities in Rio in which you would be useful, very useful."

"Yeah." This was a new voice, Turner's. "I've heard

Some Facts About Fight Tonight

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Every heavyweight title fight in nearly nine years has ended in a knockout. The last one to go the distance was champion Rocky Marciano's 15-round decision over Ezzard Charles, on June 17, 1954.

If undefeated Cassius Clay should upset champion, Sonny Liston he will join an elite group of three heavyweight rulers who had won all of their pro fights before ascending to the throne. The only others were John L. Sullivan, Marciano and Ingemar Johansson.

Joe Louis holds the record of first round knockouts in heavyweight title fights. The Brown Bomber belted out five challengers in the first round. Sonny Liston has two—both over Floyd Patterson.

The last big upset in a heavyweight title fight was Jersey Joe Walcott's seventh round knockout of Ezzard Charles in Pittsburgh, July 18, 1951. Walcott had been beaten twice before by Charles and was a 6-1 underdog in their third clash. Jimmy Braddock was a 10-1 long shot the June 13, 1935 night when he dethroned Maxie Baer on a 15-round decision in New York.

The referee will be wired for sound at the Liston-Clay title fight. Closed circuit television viewers will be able to hear him toll knockdown counts. A tiny microphone will be attached to the ref's shirt and it will look like a button. The transmitter will be carried in a pocket.

Under the new rules, if either Clay or Liston is on the floor from a punch when the bell ends a round, the referee will continue the count. If the downed fighter is counted out in the rest period, the knockout will belong to the round which had just ended. Most of the betting by the professional gamblers is on whether the fight goes more than five rounds. It's even money that it doesn't go beyond five.

about the babes down there." The shot shook the cabin. The shock shook me.

Herbert said, "Gail! Why did you shoot Turner?"

"Duffey was after him. He told Maria. Maria told us. Maria will tell others."

"How did she know?" Briant asked. "How did he get to her?"

"A good question." That was Herbert.

"He got to her to get to us," Gail said. "A very bright boy, Mr. Duffey. You were a sap the night you picked him up."

UCLA Keeps Grip on First Place in Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rolling merrily to its first undefeated season in history, UCLA maintained its grip on straight week today in The Associated Press major college basketball poll.

The Bruins' grabbed near-monopoly on first-place votes in the latest poll, being named at the top on 38 of the 42 ballots cast. Their total points—416—placed them well ahead of second-ranked Kentucky, which switched places with Michigan, No. 3 this week.

The voting was based on games through last Saturday. UCLA's vote-getting power was based on 22 games won. The Bruins were named second on the other four ballots, marking the first time they have been given all first and second-place votes.

Kentucky leap-frogged over Michigan, which lost its third game in 21 last week. The Wildcats had 358 points, the Wolverines 332.

Kentucky received two first place votes and Michigan one. Oregon State, ranked sixth, was given the other one.

Duke held fourth place despite its loss last week to Wake Forest. Wichita moved up a spot to fifth, displacing Villanova, whose defeat by St. Joseph's sent the Wildcats reeling to eighth. Davidson also rose one notch to seventh.

DePaul maintained its ninth position, but Drake, beaten by Cincinnati, fell from the Top Ten altogether. Loyola of Chicago, No. 1 early in the season, returned to the select list as Drake's replacement in 10th.

The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses and points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1. UCLA (38) 416
2. Kentucky (2) 358
3. Michigan (1) 332
4. Duke 225
5. Wichita 225
6. Oregon State (1) 195

Cooper Is the British Empire Champ

MANCHESTER, England (AP)—Henry Cooper, a 29-year-old Briton, today reigned as British, British Empire and European heavyweight champion and immediately let it be known he wanted no part of Sonny Liston.

Cassius Clay, maybe, or even Floyd Patterson. But Liston? No thanks very much, says Our Henry.

Liston defends his world heavyweight crown against Clay in Miami tonight.

Cooper added the vacant European title to his British crowns by outpointing Brian London over 15 rounds Monday night. Cooper jabbed, hooked and cutaway with his left to take the victory. Neither Cooper nor London achieved a knockdown, but both suffered eye cuts.

Cooper's manager, Jim Wicks, said: "If Clay wins his fight against Liston then we'll challenge for the title. If Liston wins then we want no part of him."

"If we don't fight Clay then we'll maybe fight Patterson in Sweden." Patterson is the former world champion who was twice demolished by Liston.

Cooper has now held the British title for five years. He won it from London whom he defeated over 15 rounds in January, 1959.

K. C., Finley All Set to Sign Pact

By JIM VALKENBURG
Associated Press Sports Writer

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Charles O. Finley says he's ready to sign a four-year stadium lease for his Athletics Wednesday, city officials pledge their support to the club and Councilman John Maguire wants to end his feud with Finley.

This would appear to lift the clouds from the troubled A's franchise, coming on the heels of an American League vote authorizing a meeting to consider ousting Finley from the league.

Pat Friday, A's general manager, reported a flood of telephone inquiries about season tickets Monday after Finley's acceptance Sunday night. Friday said an extensive sales drive is being organized.

But reservations were expressed in some quarters.

Kenneth Krakauer, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said the city is entitled to assurances from Finley that he won't try to break the lease in the future by suing the league.

Krakauer indicated he wouldn't turn loose the chamber's team of 400 ticket sellers until Finley gives assurance no law suit will be filed.

Asked about Krakauer's views, Finley told The Associated Press from his Chicago insurance office:

"I want to play ball, Joe Cronin (American League president) wants to play ball, the city wants to play ball, so let's get going."

"The acceptance telegram speaks for itself. If anyone wishes to attack or criticize the proposal extended to us by Kansas City and which we have accepted, I just don't understand their thinking and have no comment."

After the first American League meeting Jan. 16 rejecting his bid to move to Louisville, Finley said he would take his case to court. He made no such threat after the AL meeting last Friday, but a reliable source told The Associated Press that Finley's attorney, Louis Nizer, had advised the owner to accept a lease the league had termed reasonable, then sue the league on grounds he was forced to accept a lease he didn't want.

The league, however, has given the city's position the Hall Zeroing in on Goalie Prize

MONTREAL (AP)—Glenn Hall is zeroing in on the Vezina Trophy, top goalie prize in the National Hockey League.

What's more, the Chicago netminder has become an offensive threat.

Hall, a mildmannered veteran with steel nerves, opened a five-goal lead on his closest rivals in the Vezina running last Sunday by blanking Boston.

The shutout was Hall's sixth of the season, tying Boston's Ed Johnston for the league lead. But the Black Hawks' star probably will remember his assist on Bobby Hull's 36th goal long-er. It was Hall's second set-up establishing him as the goalie corps' top playmaker.

Hall is only 73 points behind teammate Stan Mikita in the individual point race. Mikita leads with 75 points, Hull was 72 and Montreal's Jean Beliveau 69.

Hull is the No. 1 goal-getter and Beliveau's 46 assists are tops in that department. The Vezina Trophy goes to the goaltender who plays the most games for the team that allows the least number of goals.

The Rev. Jerry Jester of Dierks performed the double ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladioli, greenery, and tapers in seven-branched candelabra. Nuptial music was provided by Miss De-laine Bonds, vocal soloist, and Miss Betty Andrews, pianist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional white satin wedding gown fashioned with a rounded neckline embroidered and further enhanced with appliques of seed pearls and rhinestones. The long sleeves ended in lily points over the hands, and the full skirt swept into a chapel train. Her veil of illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. A strand of pearls was her only jewelry.
Mrs. William C. Fowler of McCaskill, sister-in-law of the bride, was her matron of honor. She was gown in white and carried pink carnations. Blue peau de soie was worn by the bride's other attendants, Miss LaDonna Jean Biven of Dallas, Miss Faye Hill of McCaskill, and Miss Janice Bycey of Delight. All carried pink carnations. Flower girls, Miss Barbara Andrews, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Linda Williams, his cousin, both of Delight, wore blue peau de soie.
Charles Marshall of Delight served his nephew at best man. Ushers, who also lighted the candles, were Johnny Andrews, brother of the bride, and Joe McGalland, both of Delight.
For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Fowler wore a black brocade suit accented with beige blouse and accessories. Mrs. Andrews, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue lace dress with matching accessories. Each had a corsage of pink carnations.
A reception followed the ceremony, and it was held in the home of the bride's parents. Pink carnations which the bridesmaids had carried and silver appointments were used on the serving table. The bride's wedding attendants served the cake and punch, while Miss Sue

Henderson presided at the bride's book.
For travel the bride wore a pink linen suit with black accessories and pinned at corsage of white roses at her shoulder. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Andrews will make their home in McCaskill.

Baker Refuses

got his $19,600-a-year job as secretary to the Senate majority when Johnson, as a Texas senator, became majority leader.
A warning that Baker might be exposing himself to a citation for contempt of Congress came when he refused to state what his duties were as majority secretary, a post he resigned under fire Oct. 7.
Baker calmly said he stood by his previous statements — that he refused to reply under his 5th Amendment right to avoid possible self-incrimination, and under other constitutional guarantees.
After 2½ hours, the hearing was recessed until Wednesday when Carol Tyler, Baker's secretary and a former Tennessee beauty queen, has been subpoenaed as a witness.
The committee members reserved for later consideration the question of whether to recommend that Baker be cited for contempt.
Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., demanded that Williams withdraw his statement about the committee or be expelled from the hearing room.
Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., said Williams' statement was "total and thoroughly unwarranted."
Williams said that, since the committee knew that Baker would refuse to surrender sub-no hint of trouble.

It was the first major crash involving an airliner taking off on a scheduled flight from New Orleans International Airport.
By ROBERT ROWAND
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — An Eastern Air Lines four-engine jet carrying 56 persons on a flight from Mexico City to New York disappeared minutes after takeoff from a New Orleans stop today, and wreckage from a plane was sighted at dawn in nearby Lake Pontchartrain.
The Coast Guard said there were no signs of survivors but a search was on for bodies in the big lake.
The wreckage was about six miles south of the north shore of the lake, or some 20 miles north of New Orleans. It was about four miles east of the 27-mile-long Lake Pontchartrain case-way connecting the north and south shores.
The DC8, Flight 304, left New Orleans International Airport headed for Atlanta at 2:01 a.m. (CST). It disappeared from air traffic control radar screens at 2:10. That was the last contact with it.
At the time the plane took off, the weather was clear except for a light rain over the area. Winds were calm.
An Eastern Air Lines spokesman said the plane made routine checks after takeoff and vanished from radar with no alarm given and no hint of trouble.
Eastern said there were 49 passengers aboard, including 14 pass-riding employees, and a crew of seven.
The crew was identified as Capt. William B. Zeng, pilot G. Newby and pilot-engineer H. Idol, all New York-based; and cabin personnel Grover Flowers, Barbara Flowers, Marty Thomas and Tove Jensen, all Atlanta-based.

DOROTHY DIX

HERE ARE GIVE-AWAYS OF THE STRAYING MALE

By DR. JOYCE BROTHERS
Dear Dr. Brothers: I have the feeling that my husband may be having an affair with another woman. I haven't been able to prove it, but my intuition says it's so. Would you tell me this: What are the clues that point to such an affair? I'm sure many other wives would like to know.—VEXED
Dear Vexed: Of course, all men differ from one to another. But a pattern seems to have emerged from the study of the typical male carrying on a typical clandestine affair.

The pattern runs like this: He's anywhere between 40 and 55. Between the ages of 18 and 20 who had very little experience with women, because he kept his nose to the grindstone. Also, he never danced much when he was younger. He simply didn't have the time for it. Success and education were his goals.

So, now what happens? He knows he's not going to live forever, and now he's going to make up for it. Not helping in the least is a wife who's inattentive and unsympathetic.

If he's already met the other woman, he now begins setting groundwork at home to see more of her. Quite out of the blue, and much out of character, he starts remembering anniversaries, and puts on a burst of affection for his wife, especially before his friends and family.

This is followed by step two: He tells his wife she's had too much drudgery, and as a really understanding fellow, he suggests that she take some weekend trips or short vacations.

Why not travel, and see the country involves long trips. Very long trips.

Then the male who's all set for a fling goes into step three. To get ahead in business, he reminds his wife, with a far-off look of ambition in his eye, means he must attend more conventions and business shows — always out of town.

Now, step four. All this getting ahead, of course, requires that he spend more money. One needs money, naturally, to meet the right people, the right prospective clients.

"We'll all benefit in the end," he reminds his wife. This neat-ly covers large check withdrawals for entertaining and impressing a blonde or a brunette.

Now, there is a second version to this convention and business necessity. This is his sudden interest in sport, which he never mentioned in 10 years.

Naturally, his sporting time must be over weekends. How does he cover up his trips for his new-found sports? He doesn't know which camp or winter resort he'll visit. "A man can never tell until the last moment, you know." The result: you can't call him, or trace him.

Contrary to what many wives believe, man's sexual disinterest at home does not indicate he has a mistress. Rather, he's probably beset with business troubles, a drop in income, or the possible loss of his job. More often, it works the other way around. Sudden, but simulated, attention at home may be a cover-up for a clandestine affair outside the home.

When do husbands carry on most of these affairs? Contrary to what most wives think, it's not too often when a husband works late. It is during long lunches. What wife would think to check up on her husband's lunch time?

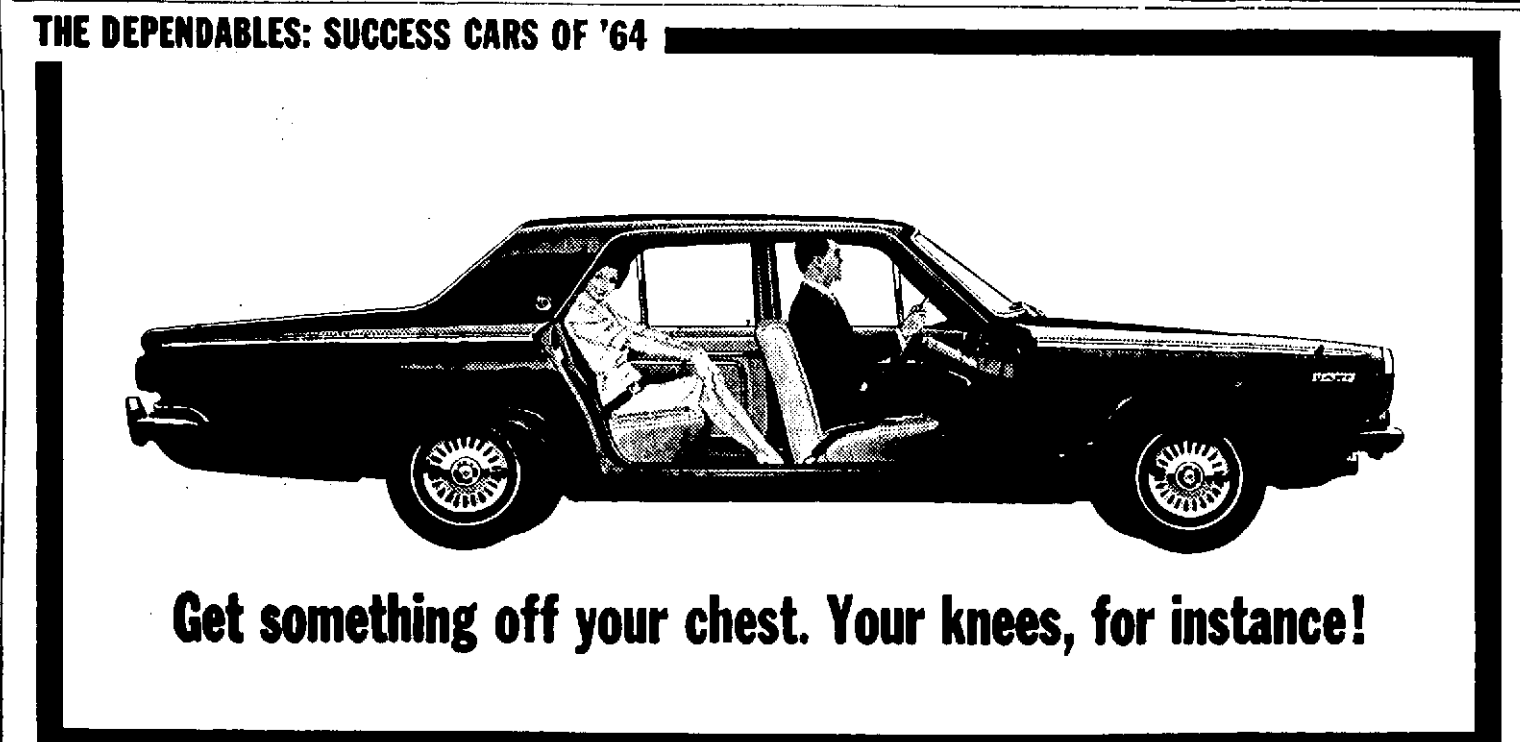

Just one more point. You can forget this whole column if you will remember that a man won't roam if he is happy at home.

Ski Jumper Seeks National Record

ISHPEMING, Mich. (AP) — John Balfanz of Minneapolis, newly crowned national ski jumping champion, sets out this weekend to capture the U.S. distance record at the huge Pine Mountain Hill in nearby Iron Mountain, Mich.

This is one of his goals and he faces rugged competition in trying to top the American mark of 322 feet, hoisted last year at Steamboat Springs, Colo., by Gene Kotlarek of Duluth.

Kotlarek was dethroned as national champion Monday at Suicide Hill by Balfanz. The 23-year-old rider, who finished a disappointing 41st in the recent Winter Olympics at Innsbruck, Austria, had leaps of 235 and 231 feet and 220.6 form points in winning the national title.

Kotlarek was a close second with 230 and 235 feet leaps for 219.0 points.

That, of course, was far below the standards he set in 1956 when he won 21 and lost 13 and in 1961 when he was 23-9. His new contract slightly reflects that fact, reportedly calling for $30,000, a $2,000 cut from last year.

At about the same time in 1962 that Lary served a month on the disabled list with his sore arm, another American League pitcher, Baltimore's Steve Barber, also had a place on the list.

Barber was felled by mononucleosis and dipped to a 9-6 record. He came back last season, however, and became the first 20-game winner in the Orioles' modern history.

His 20-13 performance and 2.75 earned run average brought him an estimated $5,000 raise to $25,000. The 25-year-old left-hander also signed his contract Monday.

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Two players accounted for two-thirds of Arkansas State's points Monday night as the Indians beat Arlington State of Arlington, Tex., 90-74.

It was the last home game for the Indians.

Jerry Hudgins hit 33 and Jerry Rook put in 29 points for Arkansas State, and the triumph kept alive a chance for a share of Southland Conference basketball title.

Lamar Tech of Beaumont, Tex., leads the fledgling league with a 6-1 record and Arkansas State is 5-2. The teams meet this week.

The Indians have a season mark of 16-8.

Liston Gets Role of the Favorite 7-1

By WILL GRIMSLEY Associated Press Sports Writer MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Heavyweight champion Sonny Liston, the brooding destroyer, is an overwhelming 7-1 favorite — with virtually no betting — to burst the fabulous bubble of the brash hard from Louisville, Cassius Clay, tonight.

Most observers predict the lights will go out for the boastful, poem-spouting challenger within minutes, perhaps seconds, after the scheduled 10 p.m. EST opening gong in Miami Beach's pink-and-blue Convention Hall.

The fastest knockout on record in a heavyweight championship is one minute, 28 seconds, scored by Tommy Burns over Jim Roach March 17, 1908, and many are convinced this old mark will be broken.

"I won't be trying for a record, but I am for a quick knockout," Liston said. "It will be over as soon as I catch him."

Sudden demolition has become the theme of Liston's awesome lists.

He has knocked out his last three opponents — Albert Westphal of Germany and former titleholder Floyd Patterson, twice — in the first round, using a total of 6 minutes, 14 seconds.

The 26-year-old Clay, who he "floats like a butterfly and stings like a bee," refused right up to the zero hour to assume the role of a man waiting for the modern guillotine.

"I'll outbox him in seven rounds and knock him out in the eighth," he insisted, adding his favorite poetic twist: "I'm predicting eight to prove I'm great."

His never-ending spiel of "I'm the king—I'm the greatest!" has failed to make a dent however, on boxing fans, who must shell out on a scale of $20 to $250 for one of the 16,000 seats. Indications were that they would stay away in droves.

Needing $800,000 to break even on the venture, promoter Bill MacDonal, the self-made Miami millionaire, said sales had reached only $330,000 and that only a last minute rush for the ticket windows could save him from a financial bath.

Meanwhile, a vast closed circuit television network, covering 269 theaters and arenas in the United States and Canada, is expected to gross between $4 and $5 million, assuring both fighters a handsome pay day.

If the over-all figure reaches $5 million, Liston, who also has a half-share in the parent promotional setup, stands to earn $1,360,000. Clay could draw $600,000, not bad for a young man who was an amateur four years ago on Uncle Sam's Olympic boxing team and who has literally gabbed himself to the threshold of the sports greatest prize.

The bout will be televised to Europe via satellite communication and will be broadcast nationally by the American Broadcasting Company.

A victory for the Louisville Lip—regarded as something in the miracle category—would provide one of the upsets of the century and one of the most astounding success stories in sports history.

Cassius acknowledges that he Tex., leads the fledgling league with a 6-1 record and Arkansas State is 5-2. The teams meet this week.

The Indians have a season mark of 16-8.

Wilt Also Good at Playmaking

NEW YORK (AP)—A passing fancy that became permanent has given Wilt Chamberlain another distinction in the National Basketball Association's statistical ratings today.

Latest NBA figures show the San Francisco superstar among the league leaders in playmaking, a phase of the game Wilt never took too seriously until the current season.

The NBA's scoring king is the first pivot man in several years to crash the top five in assists. Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson, the leader with 11 per game, and runners-up Guy Rodgers, San Francisco, Jerry West, Los Angeles, and K.C. Jones, Boston, all are backcourt men.

Chamberlain is fifth, with 4.8 feeds per game.

Wilt's rise as a playmaker puts him among the first string four of five individual departments. He is the No. 1 point-maker — 32.8 per game — and rates second in rebounding and field goal percentage.

patterned his publicity campaign after that of the late wrestler, Gorgeous George, and started "throwing the jive"—as he put it—to attract attention.

Now he has banged his cane against the ground and repeated "I am the greatest!" so often that he seems to believe himself that he is unbeatable—the golden boy of the ring.

Clay is a superb-looking athlete, 6-foot-3 and at 215 the heaviest of his career, but by comparison with the dynamite that Liston carries around in his gloves Clay has a powder-puff punch.

There are those who believe that Liston could drop his hands and let Cassius whaleaway at him for a full round, without ever being dropped to the canvas.

Angelo Dundee, Clay's trainer, cites Cassius' attributes as "a good left hand, a good pair of legs and lightning reflexes."

"He'll make a monkey out of Liston," Dundee said.

Liston is a frightening bulk of a man, 6-1 with an 84-inch reach 46 1/2 inch chest when expanded, biceps and neck that measure the same—17 1/2 inches.

He has a left hook that lands with devastating force—it was this blow that smashed Patterson into senselessness both times—and a right hand that is frightening.
